Compass? Check! Hiking boots? Check! Shelter? Check! Outdoor survival skills? Check! Are YOU prepared for the wilderness? What about a zombie apocalypse? Join our naturalists for a weeklong adventure in the great outdoors! Survivalists will acquire important outdoor survival skills including how to read a compass and orienteer, build shelters, identify edible plants, set up a tent, fire building, knot tying, and animal track and sign identification. On Thursday evening, campers will learn how to use their night vision during a night hike, test their skills by cooking their dinner over campfire, and sleep under the stars during our overnight campout! The camp will conclude on Friday morning, with donuts and OJ!
